Dear friends in Christ,

Happy New Year ... and a blessed Epiphany season to each of you!

While serving a congregation in western Iowa some years ago, I remember fondly a celebration of Epiphany unlike any I had known before. My student intern that year, Althea Sondahl, told me it had long been a tradition in her family to build a bonfire outdoors and burn their Christmas tree on Epiphany. She asked if we could do that at St. Paul's. After getting the permission of the local fire department, we invited the congregation to join us outdoors in the church parking lot with their Christmas trees for an Epiphany celebration.

I recall that it was a bitterly cold night that January 6 so many years ago. Only a few of us showed up with our trees in hand. We gathered in a circle and one by one we tossed those old needle droppers onto the fire. In no time at all, the trees were up in flames. We said goodbye to Christmas and welcomed this new season of the church year. It gave us a very visible way to celebrate the coming of Jesus as the light of the world. We then went to Althea's home and there enjoyed a lovely candlelight meal with her family. It was an Epiphany I will never forget.

In the deep of winter, Epiphany comes as a welcome sight. Epiphany means "showing forth" and it recalls the story of the magi from foreign lands who follow the star as they go to worship the Christ child. They are travelers from the East and come bearing gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. Gold was given to honor Jesus as King; frankincense to worship Jesus as divine; and myrrh, a gift symbolic of readying Jesus for his death. In this season of the church year, we celebrate the in-breaking of God's light on the world. The scripture readings throughout the season will help us understand that God's love in Christ has been given for all people everywhere, not for just a select few.

As we gather for worship throughout the Epiphany season, let us recall the gifts the wise men of old brought to the Christ child. Let us consider how we, too, can bear witness to Christ through the sharing of our gifts of time, talent & treasure. As Christians, let us answer God's call to "Let our lights shine!"

Walking with you in the light of Christ,

Pastor Marilyn

OUR CHURCH FAMILY

In Our Prayers: Joyce Hunt, Nevagay Abel, and Stu Hoffman undergoing treatment for cancer, Lisa (friend of Laurie & Mark Pellant), Mike, nephew of Anita Ralston (our custodian) , Layne Knight (friend of Carol Bailey) , Ruby Watson, Howard Gerke (friend of Carol Bailey), and all of our homebound church members.

Is God calling you to serve as a leader in the Northern Illinois Synod? Please prayerfully consider whether you might be willing to stand for election at the 2015 Synod Assembly for positions as Synod Council member; Committee member; or 2016 Church-wide Assembly Voting Member. For more information, go to nisynod.org/nominations.

READ THIS BOOK-Our library recently received a copy of "The Invention of Wings" by Sue Monk Kidd (author of "The Secret Life of Bees" from Liz Beale. She thinks it is one of the best books she has read and recommends it highly. The book is a historical novel about the life of abolitionist Sarah Grimke, her sister Nina, and their family slave named Handful. Our library also has a copy of "I Am Malala." Malala recently was a co-winner of the Peace Prize in Norway.

OUTREACH

Tutoring and Reading Opportunities

Rolling Green Elementary School , at 3615 West Gate Parkway, is in great need of adults willing to help their students in Reading (the kids read to you and you help out with sounding out words) and/or Math. Sessions can be any time during the day and typically run 45 minutes. If anyone interested in helping with math, training could/would be provided since the way they learn math now can be different from what was taught in the past. For more information contact Terri Woodcock or Kay Brindle.

CALLING ALL MIDDLE SCHOOL AND HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH

Each Sunday morning at 10:45 am you are invited to the youth room for a forum led by Phil Smalley. Each week's topic takes a current event from the news & applies it to the scripture readings for the day. It's a great way to see how faith connects with daily life. Come join the conversation!

December Church Council Highlights

- Discussed our membership with the Rockford Lutheran School System. As a partner with the school, our students who are actively involved in the life of our congregation are eligible for an annual scholarship towards their tuition fee.
- Received the good news that our organ is working again, thanks to the many hours put in by Craig Bederka, Robert Fox and Phil Smalley.
- Heard that the Outreach Committee would like to partner with RALM (Rockford Area Lutheran Ministry) to package meals to help feed the hungry children of the world through the organization "Kids Around the World." This effort would take place in the fall to coincide with "God's Work, Our Hands" Sunday.
- Received an update on the Call Process. Members are encouraged to complete the survey that was sent out in the December newsletter as soon as possible. The Call Committee meets next on January 5th and would like to review the surveys at that time.
- Heard that plans are being made to hold New Member classes on Sunday mornings in January.
- Set the date for the Annual Meeting on Sunday, January 25, 2015 at 10:45 am in Moline Hall.

Adult Education Opportunities

Adults, are you looking for an opportunity to dig into God's Word and engage in meaningful conversation with others about how faith and life connect? If so, come and check out what Shepherd of the Valley has to offer you!

We hold a Wednesday morning Bible study each week from 10:00 am – 11:00 am. This is a lectionary study which means we take a look at the three scripture readings that will be read the following Sunday at worship. A cup of coffee and a tasty treat are generally always available. However, what's even better is the great group of people and the lively conversations that we have as we wrestle with what the scripture has to say to us.

On Sunday mornings, we hold an Adult Forum from 10:45 am - 11:30 am. In January we will be doing a review of the basic teachings of the Lutheran Church.

Both the Bible study & the Adult Forum are held in Shepherd's Hall. Pastor Marilyn serves as the facilitator for both groups. We'd love to have you come and join us!

What is Epiphany

Observed on January 6th, the Epiphany celebration remembers the three miracles that manifest the divinity of Christ. The name "Epiphany" comes from the Greek word Epiphania, and means "to show, make known, or reveal." The celebration originated in the Eastern Church in AD 361, beginning as a commemoration of the birth of Christ. Later, additional meanings were added - the visit of the three Magi, Christ's baptism in the Jordan River, and his first miracle at the wedding in Cana. These three events are central to the definition of Epiphany, and its meaning is drawn from these occurrences.

Sunset...A New Bible Study for Women

Might there be an interest in gathering with other women of the congregation for a Bible study after sunset? You know, at that time of day when life is supposed to slow down and you unwind from the day. It would be a time for connecting with other women, checking out God's Word together and figuring out how it can speak to our lives today. We have an active Wednesday morning Bible study at Shepherd of the Valley, but for those working outside the home during the day, this doesn't work out. That's why I'd like to offer another alternative time for a study.

The ELCA (Evangelical Lutheran Church in America) publishes a wonderful resource magazine for women called "Gather." The magazine has many good articles written by women for women. It also has a monthly Bible study in it. This year's theme is on "Transforming Life and Faith." If you think this study is something you may like to attend, please send me an e-mail (marilynghanson@yahoo.com) or give me a call at the church and let me know. If 6-8 women decide they'd like to attend, we'll get the study started on January 22nd, the 4th Thursday night of the month, beginning at 6:30. We'll meet in the library.

NEW MEMBER CLASSES TO BE HELD IN JANUARY

Are you interested in joining Shepherd of the Valley or just reviewing the basic teachings of the Lutheran Church? If so, gather with me in Shepherd Hall on Sundays, January 5, 12 and 19 from 10:45 – 11:30 am. We'll do a brief review of Luther's Small Catechism, discuss the components of Lutheran worship, and have an open discussion on questions participants bring with them to class.

Those wishing to join Shepherd of the Valley at the end of the three sessions will be received into membership on Sunday, January 25 at the 9:30 am worship service. A coffee fellowship and the congregation's Annual Meeting will be held in Moline Hall after worship.
