 - b. AC for preschool has quit. Need quotes to replace or repair
7. Committee reports:
 - A. Worship and Music: electronically submitted.
 - B. Property: Work day for the church had a good turn out and a lot was accomplished. A ping pong table in the basement, looking to re-home it possibly to Rock House. Dave to see.
 - C. Outreach: Dave and Bob's first Sunday at Garden Prairie UCC went well. They thanked the council and the church for their support in doing this ministry position. Dave reiterated their commitment to Shepherd of the Valley during this time by saying "They encourage all hands-on deck on Sunday mornings here at Shepherd of the Valley and strive to avoid any conflicts to ministry here." Pastor Benolkin responded to this by saying that we consider them as ambassadors for Shepherd of the Valley to which Dave replied that they did also. Dave will be at the Task Force Committee meeting where he will propose to team up on Trunk or Treat with them this year.
 - D. Finance: reports submitted electronically.

Motion to adjourn by Bob, Seconded by Karen. Motion carried.

Pastor closed with prayer.

Next two meetings will be in person at the church: July 19th and August 16th

Respectfully submitted,
Barbara Pearson
